Entering the Season of Lent

The Lenten Season, may come with a sense of burden for some of us. Scripture readings and homilies recall the sorrow and suffering of Jesus. So, is Lent really a season of darkness? Yes, we focus of Christ's journey to the cross and grave and on our need for repentance. So we enter Lent with awe and a serious sense of sin for which Jesus suffered and died. But even in the dark, we know that Jesus brings grace and truth, light and life.

SNCERE APPRECIATION - Our Thanks to MARIO AQUINO (Aquicon Construction) for sending his crew to drywall and paint the two panels on both sides of the Crucifix above the Altar. Thank you to all those who helped put everything in place so that we can celebrate Mass in the Parish Hall and all those who helped clean before and after.
May God bless you abundantly for the work you do for our Parish.
