INFORMATION FROM FR. JOHN

Myself, as well as many of you, are so excited in the result of the “Sanctuary Renewal” which has come together so smoothly. Thank you to all the donors, and those of you who have worked so hard in getting it all together in such a short amount of time. You can see the workmanship of these pieces and how well it suits our parish. Our thanks to The Berkshire Group Inc., Mary & Mike Fiume for their outstanding work. There are 3 additional pieces which are due to come, we hope before Christmas – The Credence Table; Baptismal Font; and the Priest Pulpit. This is all through the generosity of our faithful parishioners. If you wish to contribute towards these additional pieces, you may send a cheque or cash marked “Sanctuary Renewal” and place it either in the basket when you come to church or drop it off in the ‘mail slot’ at the office. An income tax receipt will be issued for your gift. I continue to thank ALL our Volunteers of our parish who I can always count on their help. Since we have many volunteers, I have created a name for the two groups. The St. Martha’s Volunteer Group under the leadership of Beverley Flanagan (they oversee the cleaning of the Church and Hall) and The St. Joseph’s Volunteer Group under the leadership of Vincent Francis. They oversee the major cleaning of the church and Hall, Not sure if anyone has gone into the Hall, but, the main floor has been stripped and waxed, the carpets have been professionally cleaned and looks spectacular. A huge thank you! We also continue to thank all those who sanitize our church after each Mass and other Liturgies and Sacraments. I would like to thank Piotr and Malgorzata Krys who have graciously offered to coordinate and have already begun with instruction classes for Baptism Preparation; Marriage Encounter and the RCIA Program. We are so grateful to both of you for providing such an important Ministry to our Parish, it is much appreciated.

“Wishing you all God’s Blessings!”

New Statues and Pedestal

As Parishioners of Sacred Heart, we offer our thanks to Fr. John for his ‘vision’ along with his many talents. His design and drawings of the beautiful pieces and cutting the letters “He is Risen”. We are so blessed for his courage to follow through in creating our sacred space for many years to come.
