TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLECTION: Images of hospitality and ease in relationship with God are interwoven through today's readings. Receptive, generous and gracious in service to the Lord, Abraham models hospitality as a spiritual practice. In return, he receives an unexpected blessing. To the psalmist, those who "abide" in God are in word and act virtuous, loving honest, affirming, just and respectful. Like Abraham, they model God whom they serve. The story of Mary, Martha and Jesus in Luke's Gospel is familiar to us – Mary, the receptive listener at Jesus' feet and her sister, Martha, the practical hostess busy in the background. We can identify with the encounter and see ourselves in them. The one thing needed by Mary, Martha and all disciples is immersion in Jesus' person, an 'at-homeness' in relationship with him that enables us to reflect his presence, his hospitality, his reverence for all. So, transformed, we can be his eyes, his hands, his heart every day.
