Today's Gospel marks the beginning of the third long conversation given by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Over the next few weeks, the Gospel readings will consist of the entire 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel.

YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW

If you sow seeds of kindness,
Then kindness is what you'll reap.

If you sow seeds of forgiveness,
You'll reap untroubled sleep.

If you sow seeds of anger,
of hatred or discontent,
You'll reap a crop of violence,
Discord and evil intent.

If you sow seeds of brotherly love,
Then love you will receive,
But if wickedness is what you sow,
Then wicked you will be.

The lesson here is clear:
You reap just what you sow.
Therefore, strive to sow only good seeds,
And spread them wherever you go.

HUMANITARIAN RELIEF VENEZUELA EARTHQUAKE

A devastating series of earthquakes struck north-central Venezuela on June 24, 2026, making it the country's largest seismic disaster in more than a century. Authorities declared a national state of emergency, while teams from Venezuela and numerous international partners continue to search for survivors. The Archdiocese of Toronto will accept donations and channel funds through our Catholic partners in South America to support relief efforts underway. Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website – www.archtoronto.org
- By phone through the Donations Processing Centre – 437-529-1287
- Through the parish - Venezuela Earthquake
Please continue to pray for all those affected by this tragic situation.
